us again on a short stay, visiting relatives.
Mr. Jenkins and sister, Miss Mollie Jenkins, will leave Tuesday morning to visit their sister at Gladsville.

SMYRNA NOTES.

The delegates, Mrs. M. C. Wade and Miss E. M. Perry made quite an interesting report to the Sunday school last Sunday morning. They consider the session at Eagleville one of the most interesting and beneficial they have ever attended. The sermons, songs and prayers were the best, and the people the most hospitable.

The Sunday school feels proud of their work and the inspiration they have gained, as they say that they are more determined to be more useful in the vineyard of the Lord.

Mr. Washington Cannon and little daughter, of Nashville, were the guests of relatives and friends here Sunday.

Mr. P. R. Davis, of Laverne, subscribed for the Globe this week.

Mrs. Rhoda McCullough, after spending
